COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I was surprised to read that the author of this comprehensive review article calls his manuscript an "Editorial" in the Introduction (although he calls it a review in the conclusions). Editorials are brief manuscripts up to 1,000-1,500 words highlighting specific aspects and important topics of interest for the readers. A comprehensive review article of more than 6,000 words (text only) cannot be called an Editorial. I would therefore ask Dr. Akoh to replace the words "Editorial" with the word "review" in the Introduction (once on page 4 and once more on page 5).

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

It is well designed review article. However there is nothing new or individual experience.
