

Statement on the review of biomedical statistics

We solemnly declare that the statistical analysis work of this study has been carried out by three biostatisticians with professional backgrounds. This statistical review has played a crucial role in ensuring the accuracy of the research data, the appropriateness of the statistical methods, and the credibility of the analytical conclusions, thereby providing solid support for the scientificity and rigor of the study.

Hereby declared.

Ling-Jun Zhou

2024.10.21