

Title: Tracheostomy-related data from an intensive care unit for two consecutive years before the COVID-19 pandemic

The statistic review of the present study was done by Dr. Kotoulas Serafeim – Chrysovalantis, who holds a Master’s degree in “Medical investigation methodology” by the Aristotle’s University of Thessaloniki, in which there are two courses of Biostatistics in two consecutive semesters.