

Informed Consent

On behalf of all the authors, the survey data is anonymized and deidentified. Therefore, this study did not require informed consent since it is not possible to identify participants, and no patient identifiers are included. The approved IRB study document also re-states that informed consent is not required.

If you have any further queries, please contact me at

[REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Ahmed Alshaikhsalama

Signature:

[REDACTED]