Discussion of the possibility of carrying out the work and publishing the results of the study by Shitova AD et al. Risk modeling of femoral neck fracture based on geometric parameters of the proximal epiphysis.

The decision of the ethics committee: to accept and allow the implementation of the study with the subsequent publication of the results obtained.