SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The mini-review is well written and fully summarizes the different known genetic and metabolic characteristics of stromal/stem cells derived from visceral or subcutaneous white adipose tissue. However, some observations are necessary: 1) The abstract is unclear and does not reflect well the quality of the work. 2) Some errors in the English

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is an important and interesting minireview overviewing depot-specific ASCs derived from white adipose tissue. The immune and metabolic interactions may be described more in detail to explain the metabolic inflammation.
