

EDITING CERTIFICATE

Certificate of English Editing

3 June 2024

To whom it may concern,

This is to certify that the manuscript titled "Will Artificial Intelligence Reach Any Limit in Gastroenterology?" authored by Joseph Bou Jaoude, Rose Al Bacha, and Bassam Abboud, of Levant Hospital and submitted to the esteemed journal "Artificial Intelligence in Gastroenterology," has undergone professional English language editing under my supervision.

As an English educator also attaining a Master's degree in TESOL, I have meticulously reviewed the manuscript to ensure clarity, coherence, and adherence to the standards of academic English.

I affirm that all edits made to the manuscript were solely focused on enhancing its linguistic quality, and at no point did I alter the substantive content or original intent of the authors.

Furthermore, I hereby guarantee the quality of English language in the edited manuscript, provided that the proposed revisions are duly accepted.
