SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors reviewed the techniques of EUS based biliary drainage. The focus of this review, or mini-review? is really important and therefore, could be considered for publication, however there are essential issues to be solved before the further review. 1. The major difference between ERCP based technique and EUS based technique must be

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1. The manuscript provided a pretty comprehensive review about the techniques and the related knowledge about the EUS guided biliary drainage. 2. The current status of EUS biliary drainage about the indications, the benefits and also the safety issues from the literatures were also properly addressed.
