COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

There should be some tables to show the different regime and results of HSG studies in 1995, 1998, 2005 and 2009 . The article is confusion, there should be some subtitles in the article.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Thank Prof. Dorchy to share his "recipes" and clinical practices for his success in diabetic controls in childhood in his medical centre in Brussels. Before publication, it will be much appreciate to have extensive English editing. There are many terms and statements throughout the article may not be used properly and adequately. In addition, there are many repetitive statements in abstract, core tip and commentary. Suggest to delete such statements and shorten the abstract., particular specify and highlight the core "recipes". A simple table/line chart to show the different regime and results of HSG studies in 1995, 1998, 2005 and 2009 will be very much helpful. For the psychology, consultation methods/duration, cultural and social measures, they should be discussed in other paragraph instead of the paragraph under the "recipes".

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Very poorly written, and authors rather than referring as authors/group, it is written as i every where. Needed to be edited for Language. Needs lots of polishing.
