Editing Certification

October 17, 2025

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that the paper provisionally titled “Unlocking the Silent Signals: Motor Kinematics as a New Frontier in Early Detection of Mild Cognitive Impairment” to be submitted by Takahiko Nagamine, has been professionally edited for spelling, punctuation, grammar, sentence structure, phrasing, and overall style. The quality of English language in this paper is affirmed, provided the editing changes are accepted and further changes made to the paper have also been professionally reviewed and approved.
