

This is a retrospective study, and all personal information has been removed by de-identification, so that specific persons and their identities cannot be re-identified or be linked to other database. Written informed consent from the patients was not required to participate in this study in accordance with the Declaration of Helsinki, the national legislation and the institutional requirements.

The IRB approves the waiver of the informed consent form. Please see the attached IRB approval document.