

Institutional review board statement:

TriNetX data have been granted a waiver from the Western institutional review board as a federated network since only aggregated counts and statistical summaries of de-identified information.