

September 13th, 2025

To the Editorial Office,

As the corresponding author of the submitted manuscript, I would like to clarify that a Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate is not required in this case. I have completed both my Master's and Ph.D. education in the United States, and I possess an advanced level of English proficiency in both academic writing and communication. Therefore, I confirm that the manuscript has been written and reviewed with a high standard of English language accuracy. If necessary, I would be glad to provide a copy of my diploma as supporting documentation.

Thank you for your understanding.

Olcay Boyacioglu, PhD

Associate Professor of Molecular Biology and Genetics

Aydin Adnan Menderes University