Language Editing Statement

The manuscript entitled “Burnout and Endoscopy-Specific Workload among Gastroenterologists and Gastroenterology Fellows in Turkey: A National Cross-Sectional Survey” has been carefully reviewed by all authors for grammar, clarity, consistency, and academic style.

The authors are non-native English speakers; therefore, the manuscript underwent multiple rounds of English-language review and wording refinement before submission. The manuscript was also screened and revised using English-language editing tools, including Paperpal, for grammar, readability, and academic expression. These tools were used only for language improvement and were not used to generate scientific content, modify the data, perform statistical analysis, interpret the results, or draw conclusions.

The authors have reviewed and approved the final English version of the manuscript and take full responsibility for its accuracy, scientific content, originality, and language quality.
