SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

- Comments: • In page 3: the phrase “normal bilateral salpingo-oophorectomy” should be revised. • What is the type of sedation given to the patient during Transvaginal ultrasound-guided tunnel puncture and multiple lauromacrogol injections? • What is the number and where were the sites of lauromacrogol injections? And how many ml were injected in each site? This should be mentioned in details. • Pictures are of poor quality. • Any articles in literature describing the side effects of lauromacrogol especially if accidentally injected directly inside a vessel and distributed in the systemic circulation?
