

I've carefully re-read the manuscript and its language quality has been classified by your esteemed Baishideng company as deserving of class A priority publishing. I've spent almost four decades practicing English, published over one hundred scientific publications in prestigious international societies, and have attended and presented at numerous international medical conferences.

Best regards,

Mina T. Kelleni, MD, PhD

Pharmacology department, college of medicine, Minia University, Minia, Egypt.